The International Military Protestant Convention (the « RIMP »)...

In 1951 a few Protestant soldiers decided to meet at « the Musée du Désert », an important place for French Protestantism, to share their faith in Christ and their attachment to God.

As time passed, this meeting became the International Military Protestant Convention ("RIMP"), a place of sharing, renewal, and growth in faith for military Christians from Germany, Austria, Belgium, the Netherlands, Denmark, Sweden, Finland, Great Britain, Switzerland, Hungary, Poland, America, Canada, the Ivory Coast, the Czech Republic, Lettonia, Slovenia, and of course France (home country and overseas). Today, the "RIMP" gathers just about 500 Protestant soldiers coming from 20 different countries.

This year, our meditation is based on the theme: "GOING THROUGH CRISES"

..... Information

This RIMP is authorized by the French Ministry of the Defence, it is under the auspices of the Chief of the French armies staff. We wait for all people, in the military or civilians of Defence ministries from all countries.

The RIMP will take place at the "Espace Gard Découvertes" of Méjannes-Le-Clap (Gard) from Thursday 20th June (welcome from 17.00), to Sunday 23rd June, leaving at 14.00. All information, the detailed programme, the workshops, Church services and hymns will be written in a welcome file given at your arrival.

The "RIMP" is a military event and takes place in uniform (current service clothes or battle-dress). On Sunday morning: "summer" sortie clothes (short-sleeved shirt).

For all participants accommodated in a dormitory, sheets are provided. Hotels and campsites near the Centre offer facilities for those who want more comfort but at their own expense (see page 4 for further addresses for outside accommodation). Couples housed outside the Centre pay 160 € for the Convention.

Méjannes-Le-Clap: 30 kms from Alès, one hour from Nîmes. A shuttle between the railway station of Nîmes and Méjannes-Le-Clap is planned on Thursday at 18.00 (buses on the "Arrivée" car park). The shuttle back to Nîmes will leave Méjannes-Le-Clap on Sunday at 14.30.
