International Military Protestant Convention « the R. I. M. P »

Summary: In 1951 a few Protestant soldiers decided to meet at the « Musée du Désert », an important place for French Protestantism, to share their faith in Christ and their attachment to God.

As time passed, this meeting became the International Military Protestant Convention ("RIMP"), a place of sharing, renewal, and growth in faith for about 500 Protestant soldiers coming from 20 different countries! This is an unique and outstanding experience for all people, from France or anywhere else!

Theme of the RIMP 2014: This year, our meditation is based on the theme « God, close or far away? » to encourage us to seek God, to meet Him and to live close to him.

For Who? We wait for all people, in the military or civilians of Defence ministries and their family.

Place: The « RIMP » will take place at the "Espace Gard Découvertes" (EGD) in Méjannes-Le-Clap (Gard) from Thursday, 19th. June, welcome from 17.00, to Sunday 22nd June, leaving from 14.00.

Clothes: The "RIMP" is a military event and takes place in uniform (current service clothes or battle-dress). On Sunday morning: "summer" sortie clothes (short-sleeved shirt).

NEW! Tent of the meeting at the EGD. Place to pray, to read, to meditate ... open to all people!

Accommodation: in dormitories, sheets are provided. Hotels and campsites near the Centre offer facilities for those who want more comfort but at their own expense (see page 4 for further addresses for outside accommodation). Couples housed outside the Centre pay 160 € for the Convention.

Meals included in the fare. Access pass given at your arrival by the welcome team.

Touristic visits and concerts included in the fare.
